authenticity is what inspires the flavours of the food on our plates

We take pride in the produce of our region, and we've taken to heart the Mediterranean practice of using what's on our doorstep.

Lots of our produce is sourced nearby, our white fish for instance is landed on the North East coast, while our beef is reared on farms just up the road.

We know that only the best of Italian ingredients will do for our dishes to be truly authentic, therefore our Italian produce is imported directly from the region that inspired it. This includes the very finest olive oil, risotto rice and cheeses food menu.
